The Howard Amendment.

JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMEND-MENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNI-TED STATES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of Ameri-ca in Congress assembled (two-thirds of both Houses concurring.) That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution,

ARTICLE XIV .- Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its juridiction the equal protection of the laws. SEC. 2. Representatives shall be apportion ed among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to P. O. vote at any elections for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years yf age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State. SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as and executive or judicial officer of any State to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing in tioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, or claims, shall be held illegal and void. SEC 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article. SCHUYLER COLFAX, Speaker House of Rep. LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR DIABETS.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the ATING. For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most Are you troubled with that disfressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Duchu will re-

> I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY.

A DIURETIC is that which acts upon the kidneys. ACTS GENTLY,

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action. FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL, See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct "Buchu. Its odor is strong, diffussive, and

IN THE WORLD. I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he oc-cupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise and enterprise. WM WEIGHTMAN, (Firm of Powers & Weightman,

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Heimbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 280 'eet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks tavorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this City, which are also model establishments of their class. ments of their class.
